

TMBA 2018 EDUCATION WEBINAR SERIES

July 11, 2018 (Wednesday) | 10:00 am CT

Legal Decisions and New Legislation Impacting Lenders

DESCRIPTION

From Arbitration to NonQM to transitional licensing, a number of precedent-setting legal decisions and new legislation will begin impacting Lenders. Join us for this special webinar as Ari Karen, Partner with the Offit Kurman law firm, provides insight into the advantages of these changes.

SPEAKER

Ari Karen is an experienced litigator and speaker who has focused his practice in representing financial institutions in both government investigations and litigation before state and federal trial and appellate courts nationwide.

Mr. Karen's practice is diverse, representing clients on matters concerning banking regulations, Dodd Frank financial reform laws, contractual disputes, employment and labor statutes, wage-hour class actions, employment discrimination and fair lending matters, whistleblower complaints and non-competition claims, among others.

Mr. Karen is a principal in the firm in its Financial Institutions Regulatory and Labor and Employment practice groups. He is also the Founder and CEO of Strategic Compliance Partners (SCP). SCP is an attorney-driven, price-fixed mortgage compliance consulting firm which provides a total compliance solution for lenders.
